

Max

1.5 year old male lab mix

Shy ~ Curious ~ Happy

Max was trapped with two of his siblings while running wild last fall. Since then he has come a long way in learning to trust humans again, but he is still shy about new situations and people. Max is crate-trained, loves other dogs, and is highly food motivated which will make him fun to train as he continues to come out of his shell!

If you are interested in adopting Max, please visit www.grrf.org to fill out an application, or call us at 907-479-5577 if you already have an application on file.

